

MOTORCYCLE AND CARRIAGE CLASH

Robert Caldwell Suffers Broken
Arm In Accident
Last Thursday.

Robert Caldwell is nursing a broken arm sustained late last Thursday afternoon when the motorcycle which he was riding collided with Sheriff Crofoot's horse and carriage.

The accident occurred at the corner of Stevens and Davenport Sts. Mr. Crofoot was driving north, on Stevens when the motorcycle came off of Davenport. In endeavoring to pass the vehicle came together and Mr. Caldwell was thrown against the curbing. He struck his left arm in such a manner as to break it at about two inches below the elbow. He was also bruised about the arm and side but none of these injuries were serious. Today Mr. Caldwell was able to remove the bandage from the broken member and the indications are that it will not take long for the bone to knit.

This is the first accident of the kind to occur in Rhinelander this season. Mr. Caldwell was operating the cycle at a moderate speed. The machine was damaged to a costly extent. The sheriff's horse and rig were unharmed.

MILL AT GOODMAN WILL START SOON

Plant Has Been Greatly Enlarged
And More Men Will Be Employed.

The saw mill at Goodman, which has been shut down for the past week for purpose of making repairs and additions, will begin running July 6.

Steam cranes and lifts have been put in to facilitate handling the lumber.

The new hardwood yard is now practically completed, the grading is finished and steel is now being laid.

With these improved facilities the Goodman Lumber Company expects to manufacture and ship between two and a half and three million ft. of lumber per month and will largely increase their working force both in the mill and yards.

The Soo railroad has begun building the new passenger station at Goodman. This is to be 24x38 ft. with 7 ft. eaves and passenger platform 350 ft. long. It is a new design, first class depot that the Soo line is erecting at their more important stations.

The present population of Goodman is about 800, in addition to which there are from 200 to 300 men in the logging camps adjacent to the village. A large number of the residents of Goodman moved there from Rhinelander and vicinity amongst whom is Mr. C. H. Person, Supt.

With the starting of the mill July 6th, the number of men on the payroll of the Goodman Lbr. Co. will total about 500.

BISHOP SCHINNER HERE

Rt. Rev. Bishop Schinner, of the Catholic diocese of Superior was the guest of the Rev. Dr. Liefelder and charge of St. Mary's school here Saturday evening. He went from here to Minocqua.

Father Duenn has been appointed priest at Winter. He takes the place of Father Pilon.

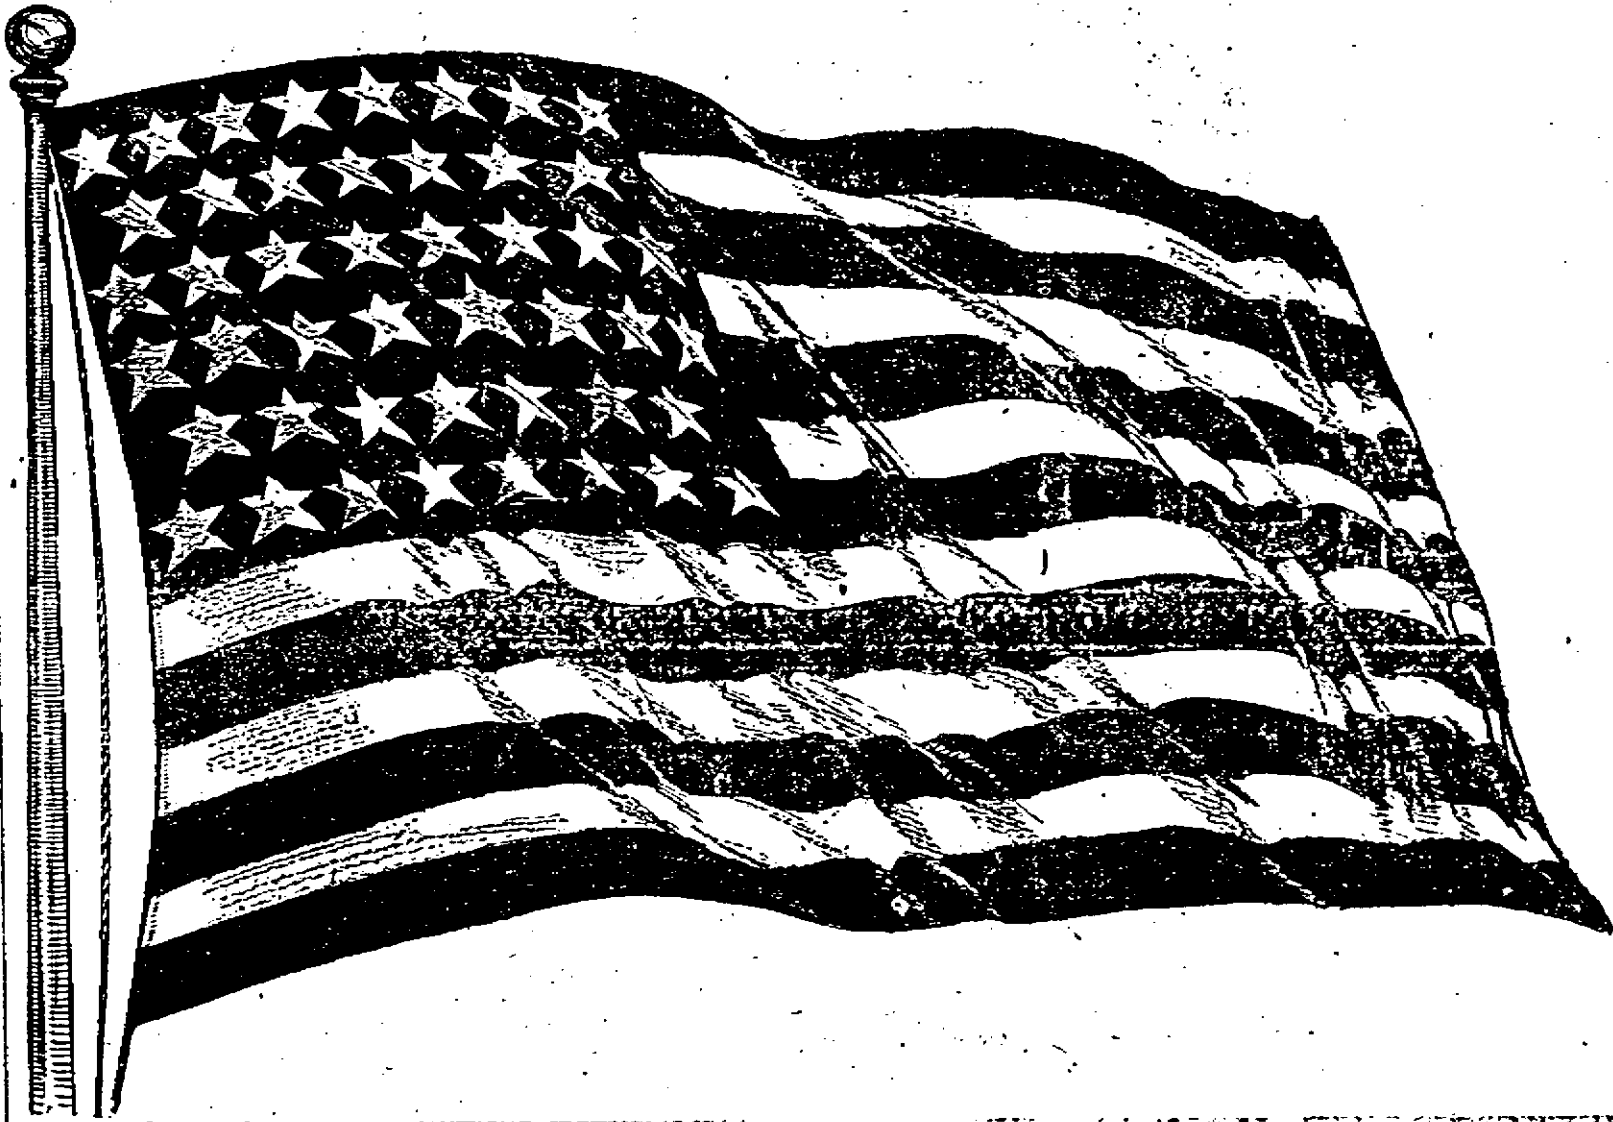

GO TO MOTHER HOUSE

The Franciscan Sisters, who have charge of St. Mary's school, have gone to the Mother House at Alverno to spend the summer.

LARGE COMMUNION CLASS

A class of seventy-four children received first communion at St. Mary's church Sunday. The impressive services were largely attended.

The Nation's Birthday

Spend July 4th in Rhinelander. The members of Co. L, have arranged for the biggest and grandest celebration in the history of the city. There will be something doing every minute. A complete program of races, sports and amusements of all kinds. Ball game between Milwaukee Hartman's and Rhinelander. An Exciting motorcycle race at the fair grounds. Exhibition drill by Co. L. Brilliant display of fireworks in the evening. The day will be brought to a close with one of the Company's Popular Military Balls at the Armory.

The entire program has not been prepared for publication at this time and the New North is able to give its readers only a brief review of the principal features.

GRANDON GETS SALOONS

Council Votes In Favor Of Granting Liquor Licenses

Judge Walker was in attendance at the special meeting of the Grandon city council, Tuesday evening, called for the purpose of deciding on the liquor license question, and states that in nearly all cases applicants were granted licenses.

About forty ladies were present at the meeting and many of them tearfully pleaded with the council not to allow the admittance of saloons. Temperance workers also talked against granting licenses, but from the results of the votes made scarcely any impression on the body. Each application was acted on separately and carried by such votes as 6 to 4, 8 to 2 and 7 to 3.

Judge Walker thinks that the temperance people may now serve a temporary injunction restraining the city from issuing the licenses.

LACERATES HIS HAND

John Swartz, a Soo line conductor, had his right hand painfully lacerated Sunday when it caught in the propeller of his launch. He was trying to remove weeds from the propeller when the mishap occurred. About a dozen stitches were required to close the wound.

LOYAL TO RHINELANDER

Charley Conro Is A Full Fledged Genuine Booster

It is a loyal citizen who says a good word for his home town when he is in an outside community. It makes no difference whether he praises the people, the beautiful buildings and streets, public and industrial institutions or the base ball team, as long as he boosts something in his town, it displays the fact that he has the right spirit. Chas. Conro is evidently one of this type as the following from the Ironwood Times would indicate:

Chas. Conro, the well known lumberman of Rhinelander, Wis., was in the city Wednesday. He contends that the new sawdust city has one of the fastest base ball teams in the northwest this season and spent friends what they were going to do to us, when they come up here on July 16.

SELLS MASTERSON LANDS

C. Eby, the land man, has sold the John T. Masterson timber lands in Sections 14 and 15, Township 36, Range 10 E. to the Menasha Wood-ware Co. of Menasha. These lands are heavily timbered with pine and other woods.

MASONS AT TOMAHAWK

Rhineland Lodge Gets Invitation To Chautauqua

Tomahawk Lodge No. 243 F. & A. M. extends to the Masons and their families of this city an invitation to visit the Tomahawk Chautauqua on July 6th. On this day Richard Pearson Holson of Merrimac fame will deliver the principal address.

The plan is to meet the visitors at the train and take them in launches to an island in the river for lunch and afterward entertain them at Bradley Park.

The Merrill lodge has also been invited.

EAGLES SELECT JANESVILLE

J. C. Teal, A. Schander, J. M. Baker and D. Corbett, the Rhinelander Eagles who attended the state convention at Marshfield last week, speak lightly of the elaborate entertainment accorded them by the birds of that city. It was one of the most pleasant gatherings ever held by the order in this state. The Wausau Aerie received first prize of $150 for having the largest number of men in line in the parade. The Antigo delegation carried a live eagle. Janesville was selected for the next convention.

GREAMER AND SHELLEY

Two Clever Boxers To Meet In This City July 3.

It is the opinion of local followers of the boxing game that "Fighting Dick" Greamer will have his hands full when he meets Jack Shelley of Prescott, Arizona, in this city, July 3, for ten rounds.

Shelley is reputed to be a clever ring general and has a punch that never fails to be effective. He is also said to be as quick as lightning and keeps his opponent guessing all of the time.

Greamer says that he realizes he will be up against a hard proposition in Shelley, but thinks that he will manage some way to put the Arizona lad away. Dick's friends have confidence that he will be able to do the trick.

Dr. Garner has been engaged to referee the match. There will also be one or two lively preliminaries between local boys.

NEW STORE BUILDING

It is stated that Ira Cass and Emil Johnson, will erect a modern up-to-date store building on Mr. Cass' lot on Lincoln street.

LODGE HOLDS BIG ANNUAL FESTIVAL

S. H. And E. F. Of A. Members
Enjoy Social Occasion At Hall Saturday Night

The members of the Scandinavian Aid and Fellowship Society of this city held their mid-summer festival at the Scandinavian hall on north Brown street Saturday evening. The affair was one of the leading social functions of the year in Scandinavian circles and was attended by an assemblage which more than comfortably filled the hall.

An appropriate and pleasing program of speeches, recitations and musical numbers made the evening pass all too quickly.

G. Sheldred spoke interestingly on the Midsummer Day and President A. C. Dunderon of the S. H. of A. gave a talk on the finances of the order. This was followed by a piano solo by Mrs. Fremstad and a song by Misses Edna and Hattie Johnson. Andrew Olson told of Adia, the great northern god, the goddess Triga, Thor and his hammer and God, Loki, the wicked. The summer in Norway was the subject of a short discourse by John Swedberg. Messrs. Gust and John Swedberg and A. Shulstrom rendered a song after which Thos. Alme talked on the recent convention of the Sons of Norway at Hudson.

At the end of the program ice cream and cake were served.

Elect Officers

At the meeting of the S. H. & E. F. of A. No. 29 held at their hall on N. Brown St. last Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year, viz:

President—John Swedberg
Vice Pres.—Sam Moberg
Rec. Sec.—And. Olson
Fin. Sec.—Gust Swedberg
Treasurer—Hans Anderson
Marshal—Soren Olson
Chaplain—Carl Johnson
Inner Guard—And. Carlson
Outer Guard—Ole Wick
Librarian—E. Lofquist
Trustee—Chas. Lund.

SELL MENDELSON STOCK

Big Closing Out Sale Starts Next Saturday Morning

In this issue will be found a large ad which is self explanatory and from which you will see that C. N. Harper & Co. Inc. merchandise sale specialists of Chicago, have the selling of M. Mendelson's stock which was formerly owned by H. M. Buck and sold to M. Mendelson by the U. S. Court on or about March 18th 1911 at a price so that it can be sold at a terrific sacrifice and in order to make a quick disposal of this stock, C. N. Harper & Co. Inc. state that they do not want to make it a long drawn out affair and for this reason have decided to make prices that will surprise the buying public of Rhinelander and adjacent towns. You all know the reputation that this store enjoyed and the character of the clothing, shoes, hats, caps and men's furnishing goods is of the dependable lines and of the better makers and M. Mendelson's word as to the character of these goods is as good as a gold bond as his reputation, in this community, stands as a living monument.

This sale starts Saturday, July 1st, at 9:00 A. M. and closes Saturday, July 15th at 12:00 at night.

HUGE ELEPHANT SUICIDES

Queen, the 6,000 pound elephant that appeared in this city last summer with the Yankee Robinson circus committed suicide Saturday by drowning while being led from the train to the show grounds at Cumberland. The monster plunged into Beaver Dam lake. It took fourteen horses to draw the carcass out of the water. Queen was valued at $18,000 and was considered one of the best performers on the road.

EVENTS OF WEEK IN OTHER TOWNS

Items of More or Less Importance Boiled Down From Neighboring Exchanges

Grandon

Five horses owned by Daniel Bowman were killed by a Soo line passenger train when they broke out of a pasture and wandered onto the track. Bowman has made a claim of $850 for the loss of the animals and it is reported that the Soo railway company will settle for that amount.

Hayward

The officers of the Sawyer county agricultural society are planning for the largest and by far the best fair ever held in the county. There will be attractions galore and a fine program of horse racing. Buttons advertising the occasion will be distributed throughout this part of the country and everybody will be urged to boost for the success of the show.

Hurley

Chas. A. Sober, who was arrested at Virginia, Minn., recently on a charge of white slavery, pleaded guilty to the offense before Judge Denison at Marquette and was sentenced to three years in the government prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. Sober was sentenced under the Mann white slave law, passed about two years ago, which forbids anyone from taking immoral women from one state to another.

Iron River

The dead body of John Lusky, a laborer, was found in the rear of the New Lenox House and an investigation disclosed the fact that the man met his death by falling out of a third story window, breaking his neck. No one witnessed the accident but occupants of rooms in the hotel say that during the night they heard a crash and a dull thud which must have been caused by Lusky as he fell headlong to his fate.

Merrill

After July 1st it is probable that Hotel Lincoln, one of northern Wisconsin's leading hotels, will be leased to outside parties. Heretofore, the Merrill Hotel company composed of the manufacturers and merchants of the city, have operated the Lincoln. John Teeling, who since 1901 has been manager of the hotel, has resigned to assume charge of the New European St. Charles Hotel at Pierre, S. D.

Ladysmith

At the annual state firemen's tournament at Fort Atkinson the Ladysmith Fire Team won the championship horse race and the relay coupling contest the two biggest events on the program. The prizes for these victories were $112 in cash and a silver trumpet. Reedburg gets the next tournament.

Marquette

A Milwaukee road passenger train was deliberately wrecked by someone just outside the city limits, Thursday night. A bolt had been removed from a switch rod and the switch was turned and packed with

Read This== Startling but true

The H. M. Buck Clothing Stock now owned by M. Mendelson is now being invoiced and prices being made by C. N. Harper & Co., Inc., Merchandise Sale Specialists of Chicago. Watch for the opening day of the sale.

M. MENDELSON recently bought the Buck stock of clothing, shoes and furnishing goods from the U. S. court in view of continuing the business but having other interests in other localities finds that he cannot devote his time to this store, and has decided to close out the entire stock and has placed the same in THE HANDS OF C. N. HARPER & CO., INC., Merchandise Sale Specialists of Chicago, to close out the stock with instructions to sell it without reserve.

Signed, C. N. HARPER, & Co.

Who Are C. N. Harper & Co.

C. N. Harper & Co., (Inc.) Merchandise Sale Specialists of Chicago are the largest and best known Sale Specialists in the business, being known from Canada to the Gulf and from coast to coast as the world's greatest merchandise specialists price slashers and bargains givers, and when a stock of merchandise is placed in their hands to be converted into cash, they do not temporize, banter or dicker about prices, they simply put the knife into prices, cut and slash regardless of cost or values. In view of this I wish to have it plainly understood that we are not asking you to take the newspaper talk or the talk of the town about this Gigantic Mercantile Event, but we want you to give us a call and be convinced, that you will know that every statement we have made is correct.

For the benefit of those who were not acquainted with the character and kind of stock that was carried by the former owner Mr. Buck, I wish to emphasize that that this store had an established and enviable reputation of carrying only high grade merchandise and the superior quality of this stock is so well known that comment is unnecessary. My reputation for probity as a business man and dealings guaranty that all goods will be sold as advertised and I will give $100 reward to any Charity Institution in the State of Wisconsin if anyone finds in my store a single article the value of which is misrepresented. From this you will see that I wish to instill confidence and respect. This is a bonafide closing out sale without misrepresentation as to values offered. Signed, M. Mendelson.

Store Closed

Until Saturday, July first at 9 A. M. At that hour the doors will swing open and we will start to close out the entire stock formally owned and conducted by H. M. Buck. This will be the Mercantile Event of the season. Signed - C. N. Harper & Company, Incorporated, Chicago.

A FEW WORDS OF EXPLANATION

Nothing approaching this sale has ever been held in this vicinity. Remember every article in the house is included in this closing out sale, whether enumerated or not. We particularly wish to emphasize the fact that the goods included in this stock are of a dependable nature, sensible, servicable and substantial. We regard this as one of the most important sale events that this vicinity has ever known. It is a strong claim to make but the fact that M. Mendelson bought this stock from the U. S. court at such a ridiculously low price is the reason that we can with his instructions give the public values that cannot be duplicated elsewhere, and Mr. Mendelson having decided to discontinue the business makes our statement double strong. These conditions justify our claims. For a quick disposal of this stock and in order to wait on the trade quickly, we have employed a sufficient number of clerks to wait on every customer, and have displayed bargains throughout the store to remind you of your immediate and future needs. You will find this store an exposition of $15,000 worth of bargains in men's and boys' clothing, hats, furnishing goods, and men's and boys' shoes at less than bankrupt sale prices. Should you wish to verify our statement bring this circular with you, compare with the prices on the goods. Remember readers, this sale is for cash and cash only and that we are employed for the purpose of converting the entire stock into cash. Signed C. N. Harper & Co. Inc. Chicago.

GYPSIES CAUSE POLICE TROUBLE

Bad Gang Comes Into City Saturday and Commits Many Minor Offenses.

A band of gypsies wandered into Rhinelander Saturday afternoon and managed to make matters interesting for Chief Straub and his force during its brief sojourn here. The members of the tribe and especially the women, it seemed, were bent on mischief and succeeded in committing several minor depredations before the chief was able to round them up and force them to journey onward.

On the pretense of telling fortunes the women would enter saloons and boldly confiscate anything that was not glued down from the free lunch to a quart of liquor. It is believed that they would have appropriated the cash register could they have made their get away. One barkeeper is mourning the loss of a five dollar bill which was deliberately scratched from his vest pocket. Another man caught a woman in the act of removing a roll of fifty dollars from him. Chief Straub was kept continually on the move responding to telephone calls for assistance. As far as is known the residence section of the city was not molested by the gang.

From newspaper reports from cities visited by the gypsies they are about the worst pack of dirty, thieving outlaws on the road and in some places are alleged to have attempted to steal children. Chief Straub threatened the entire band with arrest should it ever come this way again.

CUBS WIN AGAIN

They Defeat Minocqua Team By Score of 7 to 4.

Steve Gwilt's Cubs added another game to their list of victories Sunday when they defeated the Minocqua team at that village, by a score of 7 to 4.

Learning that the Cubs were exceptionally strong the Minocqua management engaged "Coony" Cannon, a state league pitcher from Green Bay, and Schroeder, a Merrill, catcher, to play the game. Despite this fast battery the summer resort boys proved easy for Steve's battlers.

Sherman and Rasmussen were the battery for the Cubs and put up an admirable exhibition. A fair sized crowd witnessed the game.

In the mention of the Cubs-Minocqua game in last week's New North the score should have read 13 to 11 in favor of the Cubs.

SUPPORT YOUR TOWN

Man's First Duty Is To His Home Community

"Why should I support my own town?" is a question every one should put to himself and honestly consider. The result would be beneficial both to the individual and the town. Here are a few of the many reasons he would be sure to find:

The town is his home and a man's first duty is to his communal home as well as to his domestic home. Again, local patriotism demands it. Love for and pride in one's town is the duty as it should ever be the joy of every citizen, and that patriotism should find constant expression in furthering its interests. His town affords him the protection of its government and laws and guards his property against fire and other losses.

A man should trade in his town. Its business men are courteous, willing and progressive, their stock of goods is large and varied, and if there is something one wants which they do not carry they are always ready to secure it. Unlike catalogue houses, the home merchants help to pay the taxes of a town, they contribute to churches, improvements and entertainments. Without the business men the town would stagnate and property decrease in value.

The schools of a town provide ample and satisfactory education for one's children, and its churches meet and satisfy his religious needs and conserve the moral and spiritual interests of the community.

Its newspapers keep him informed on local matters, enlarge his knowledge, help him in business, minister to his enjoyment and that of his family, and promote every wise effort put forth to help the best interests of the town.—Hurley Miner.

TOMAHAWK CHAUTAUQUA

Week's Program Will Begin Next Sunday Afternoon

Tomahawk's big chautauqua will open next Sunday, July 2, and continue eight days. The program, by comparison, is undoubtedly the best chautauqua offering of the Middle West. Such national figures as John Mitchell, Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson, Col. George W. Bain, Ople Read, Rev. Fr. J. M. Cleary, Judge Frank P. Sadler, Dr. Charles A. Eastman and others will speak. Musical numbers will include the Original Carolinian Jubilee Singers, Castle Square Entertainers, Imperial Band of eighteen pieces, quartets, etc. Children will find entertainment in story hours and meetings of Miss Norah Koegh. The chautauqua management is making no apologies for the program, believing that its quality will be attractive to the people of all north Wisconsin. Tomahawk people are leaving nothing undone that will add to the pleasure, entertainment and comfort of visitors. Notably hospitable, the city will outdo itself on this occasion. Bradley park, in which the chautauqua will be held, is a beauty spot of God's own giving and an ideal location for a chautauqua. A beautiful chautauqua booklet gives the detailed program and is profusely illustrated with park scenes and portraits of the talent offered. It is free for the asking.

STARTS ROAD TROUPE

Manager Kruckeberg's Traveling Show Pleases Crowds

Manager Kruckeberg of the Bijou and Grand Opera House has put a vaudeville and motion picture show on the road which is meeting with the approval of large audiences in all of the small towns near Rhinelander. At Arbor Vitae the other evening the hall was too small to accommodate all who desired to attend the performance. A similar business is reported at other towns. Miss Jessie Knudson joined the company at Hackley, Tuesday and will be the pianist.

It is understood that Mr. Kruckeberg will tour all of the villages in the northern section of the state and may enlarge the troupe and add new features if business demands.

THEY ARE HAPPY NOW

Miss Jane Sullivan Becomes Wife Of William J. Olsson

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's church in this city at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning when at a nuptial mass Rev. Father Duane performed the ceremony which united Miss Jane Sullivan and William John Olsson. The young couple was attended by Miss Elizabeth and Patrick Sullivan, sister and brother of the bride, Misses Beatrice Stapleton and Elaine Doyle were flower girls and Master Eddie Cain was ring bearer. The bride was attired in white marquisette over satin and wore a veil, and the bridesmaid wore white net over pink and carried pink roses. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and flowers.

After the marriage the party went to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sullivan on the north side where breakfast was served to a large number of guests. The young people left on the Northwestern last evening for Milwaukee and Chicago. They will be at home after July 20th at 625 Randall.

The bride is a pleasing young lady with a host of friends in the city. Her many amiable traits endear her to all who know her.

Mr. Olsson is highly thought of by all who have his acquaintance and is said to be an excellent young man. He holds a responsible position with the Rhinelander Paper company. Friends of the happy pair extend best wishes.

HIRES TWO NEW PLAYERS

Pitcher Daly, who appeared here in the box for Marion Saturday and Sunday, has been engaged by Manager Chas. Belliel to do the pegging for Rhinelander for the remainder of the season. Daly's work on the mound delighted the fans here and it is reported that Charley at once made him an enlisting offer.

"Bunny" Kuehn of LaCrosse is another star player who has been signed for the outfield. Kuehn was in the Minny league last season.

The merry-go-round in the vacant lot near Harriott's store continues to draw large crowds and is furnishing plenty of amusement for the little folks.

MARRIED AT PLATTEVILLE

The wedding of Miss Margaret Huntington and Harry Slevwright took place yesterday at the bride's home at Platteville. Rev. Father Lillis officiated at the ceremony. Miss H. Reilly and James Desmond were the attendants. Only small particulars of the marriage have been received here and a more complete account will be published next week. Mr. and Mrs. Slevwright are now in Chicago on their honeymoon.

AROUND THE CIRCLE

A pleasant party took place at Crescent Hall, Saturday evening, in honor of the christening of the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Kramer. The social feature was a pleasant affair and enjoyed by all who participated and the light fantastic was tripped until the wee small hours of the morning. Geo. says he will put the young rascal to work on the line as soon as he can hook the spurs on.

Miss Mamie Johnson of Woodport is visiting at the home of Peter Christianson this week.

Wm. Pushon of Marshfield, is assisting in making hay on the Lewis farm, G. Billington superintendent.

Quite an exciting game of base ball was played Sunday on the Crescent diamond between the Crescent Never Sweets and the Pelican. Hardly Ables resulting in a score of 18 to 4 in favor of the "non-sweatables."

A large red fox has cultivated quite a habit for chicken of late on the farm of O. F. Beard, who has missed a few of his best fowls recently.

Our late dry spell has been quite a detriment to the berry crop during the past week and Mr. Lassig has been kept busy getting his crop to market but also says that he has the best canning berry he has had for a couple years and would advise those in need of such to place their orders now.

P. Christianson has been doing some fine road work on the river road this week which will improve that side of the river a great deal.

Haying has been commenced in earnest and the merry click of the mowing machine can be heard on every side. The crop of that commodity seems to be very good this year and the farmers are happy over that fact at least.

Some of the finest crops of corn we have seen this year are now being cultivated on the farms of C. Hagen, Sr., and that of J. Hess. They certainly look fine to a "bean husker" of the right sort.

Those young boys who are meddling with the rural mail boxes on Route No. 1, had better be a little more careful as the penalty for such things is quite severe.

Miss Anna Christianson expects to depart soon for Denmark, Wis., where she will make an extended visit among friends.

NORTH GRANDON

Fred Nault of Iron River has finished the work of raising the Hotel Alice.

S. Koch and G. K. Brockman are busy remodeling the store of H. R. Huff.

Miss Marie Nelson has been selected as teacher of the Long Lake school for the ensuing year.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Spalding of Mount Pleasant, Mich., are guests at the Raymond home.

Chas. Kibben has completed the contract of moving the school building for John Manstam and has returned to Rhinelander.

A. Swanson of Hermansville, Mich., is about to buy a tract of land near this village.

It is the duty of all good citizens to boost for North Grandon. Do so and watch the town grow bigger and better.

MINOCQUA

It is believed that many people from this village will attend the July 4th celebration at Rhinelander.

There was an interesting base ball game here Sunday. Rhinelander vs. Minocqua. We were sorry to see the home boys lose but like good sports have no complaint to make.

W. H. Fisher has placed his new launch on the lakes. It is a pretty little boat.

The new town dock at the foot of Milwaukee Street is completed.

The sportsmen are arriving daily in vast numbers.

Some big "muskys" are being caught here this week.

EAGLE RIVER

E. F. Hayward of Rummels has purchased a team of horses of R. L. Denton of Rhinelander.

Mrs. Chas. Handel is entertaining her brother Adam Paisney of Chicago.

A. Saffor was on business at Rhinelander, Friday.

Mrs. G. N. Bilow of Kenosha is the guest of her brother, R. E. Simmons on Big Bass lake.

SAMUEL SHAW IS A COSTLY CITIZEN

He and His Family Get Over
$34,000 Out of Forest Co.
From 1885 to 1905

It will be remembered that in our report of the examination of Shaw it was stated that he had received $17,511.61 during the seven years he was in public office in this county, in addition to his salary. This amount by no means represents all of the money drawn from the county treasury by Shaw and his family. An examination of the stubs of the county orders shows that Shaw and "his folks," that is, Mrs. Shaw and Miss Lulu Shaw, have drawn a very substantial amount of money from the public cash box. This county was organized in 1885, and until 1905 the records show that Shaw and "his folks" were beneficiaries of the moneys raised in Forest county by taxation in each and every year. An examination of these order stubs discloses that the total amount of money thus received by our most "prominent" citizen and his family during the years mentioned was $24,378.21. The amounts received each year were as follows: 1885, $1,203.65; 1886, $1,225.42; 1887, $1,214.95; 1888, $1,437.70; 1889, $1,045.46; 1890, $690.02; 1891, $707.90; 1892, $1,345.74; 1893, $1,917.17; 1894, $2,129.49; 1895, $3,269.91; 1896, $5,239.03; 1897, $3,251.75; 1898, $500.00; 1899, $2,448.98; 1900, $2,191.10; 1901, $1,253.65; 1902, $1,415.20; 1903, $963.93; 1904, $1,112.40.

The sum of $24,378.21 does not represent all that was claimed from the county by Shaw and his family. It appears that for some unaccountable reason the county board on fifteen occasions had the hardihood to disallow some of the claims, and to disallow a part of others. It is true that the amount thus allowed is insignificant as compared with the whole amount paid and amounts to but $1,309.42. It therefore appears that Shaw and "his folks" claimed from the county during this period the sum of $25,687.63. While no doubt it is true that "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country," yet it seems also to be true that "a prophet is not without profit even in his own country."—Crandon Forest Echo.

MEETS BOYHOOD CHUM

Howard Courtwright of Los Angeles, Cal., is at the Hazelhurst lakes on a fishing trip. Mr. Courtwright is reputed to be several times a millionaire and is heavily interested in Pacific coast real estate and southwestern oil lands. He is an old boyhood chum of Frank Bryant and their meeting at Hazelhurst this week was the first time they had seen each other in twenty years. They spent many pleasant hours recalling reminiscences of former days in Michigan. Before returning to California Mr. Courtwright may visit at the Bryant home in this city.

WATERMELONS ARRIVE

The first watermelons of the season made their debut in this city at B. L. Horst's store Friday last. The melons were large, sweet and juicy and found a ready sale at thirty cents each. Since then the price has dropped to thirty-five and forty cents. The melons come all the way from Texas. Musk melons are also on sale in the local markets.

HOW TO ADVERTISE

A business ebbs or flows, goes up or down, in proportion as the business man lets people know what he has to sell them. To act on the idea that what people want they will come and seek after, might do it all business men followed it. But the shrewd, up-to-date business man will not follow such fossilized methods, but through judicious, attractive and generous advertising tells the public what he has, and the public reciprocates by trading with him. In truth, people do not want to bother themselves with wondering where they can get an article when the fact can be brought to their notice through an ad in the local paper. The invariable rule is, no advertising, little business; fair advertising, fair business; generous advertising, prosperous business. Why that rule works out so infallibly is clear to every intelligent mind.

"ZACH" IS STILL BUSY

Zacharias, the dog policeman, is still busy and within the last week or more many friendless and tagless dogs have been lassoed and destroyed by him. When Zach goes after a canine he generally nabs the beast and more than one otherwise peaceful neighborhood has been erupted through his persistency in this respect. A wrathful feminine voice gives no fear to him and the calmness with which he controls his temper in the face of a bombardment of fiery adjectives is remarkable. And in the meantime another dog is dragged off to the happy hunting ground.

After making elaborate arrangements for his marriage to a Milwaukee woman, Otto Krueger, a laborer, failed to appear with his bride at the appointed hour. Krueger had engaged a hall for a two days dance, hired music, contracted with bakers, butchers and brewers for refreshments and when all preparations were completed strangely disappeared. He had told friends that all expense of the wedding would be paid by his mother, who was coming from Germany with a fortune. The man was probably demented.

Ashland

The decision of the tax commission on the county tax matter has just been received here. This decision means a decided cut in the city's share of county taxes. The commission in its decision declared that the city had made out a prima facie case and that there was no question of the injustice done the city. In order to avoid making readjustments the commission suggests that the towns compromise with the city but it declares that the city in no event should pay more than 45 per cent or less than 35 per cent of the county tax—Chief of Police Blair received a telegram from Whilper of the arrest there of R. M. Bradley and officers have gone to bring him back to Ashland. Bradley came here three months ago posing as a rich son of a prominent Kentucky family and succeeded in passing a

The large game fishing in this section never was as good as it is this summer. All fishermen bring back evidence of their good luck and some unusual catches have been made. Men working on the Arpin dam near Radisson caught a 62 pound sturgeon with a wire snare in the Chippewa river, and will have it mounted. The 12-year-old son of Station Agent Sheppard at Radisson caught a 30 pound muskellunge by hand. The fish came over the Arpin dam and struck on some rocks, was stunned, and before it came to the boy had the fish out on dry land.

DON'T EXPERIMENT

You Will Make No Mistake if You Follow This Rhinelander Citizen's Advice

Never neglect your kidneys. If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are common symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is recommended for the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has cured many stubborn cases in Rhinelander. Follow the advice of a Rhinelander citizen.

Mrs. Henry Hagan, 130 E. King St., Rhinelander, Wis., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a splendid kidney medicine and will benefit anyone who takes them according to directions. My back was extremely lame and my kidneys were disordered as was shown by the unnatural appearance of the kidney secretions. I took medicine of various kinds, but was not benefited until I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills at Reardon's Drug Store. This preparation restored my kidneys to a normal condition and drove away all my pains and aches."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SUMMER SESSION OF "U"

Over 1,500 Pupils Enroll For The Short Term

The University of Wisconsin summer session opened for its thirtieth year Monday. Indications point to an enrollment of over 1500 students this year. The majority of this number are high school and grade teachers from Wisconsin and other states who come to the Badger university to "brush up" in their respective studies during the summer school. A fair proportion are graduate students who are devoting their time to work leading to the master's degree.

A total of 143 professors, instructors and assistants will get work during the summer session and the subject taught will include practically every field offered in the regular session of the state school.

The course in agriculture, library training for teachers, and physical education promises to attract many this year. The indications are that the classes in manual training and home economics will also be crowded, as these subjects are now requiring the services of special teachers in many high schools of the state.

LOGS DELAY LAUNCH PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Mode, Miss Lou Larson and Sam Anderson made a launch trip to Sam Johnson's cottage up the Wisconsin east Thursday. They intended to return the same day but a log jam prevented them from doing so and it was not until Saturday morning that the river was sufficiently clear to allow the passage of their boat. Their relatives and friends here became much alarmed over their absence and it was not until late Friday evening, when word was received that they were safe and sound, was the feeling of anxiety removed.

YOUR NEIGHBOR'S EXPERIENCE

How you may profit by it. Take Foley Kidney Pills. Mrs. E. G. Whitely, 360 Willow St., Akron, O., says: "For some time I had a very serious case of kidney trouble and I suffered with backaches and dizzy headaches. I had specks floating before my eyes and I felt all tired out and miserable. I saw Foley Kidney Pills advertised and got a bottle and took them according to directions and results showed almost at once. The pain and dizzy headaches left me, my eyesight became clear and today I can say I am a well woman, thanks to Foley Kidney Pills."

WEEKLY MAGAZINE

The Great Progressive Weekly

There are many reasons why you should read what it says 52 times each year. It is free to tell the truth. It will oppose the encroachment of special privileges upon the people's rights. It will call the roll on public men and measures and inform you how your congressmen work and vote. It will criticize the executive branch of government from the highest to the lowest, if in its judgment the people's interests are not protected. It will spread the gospel of ideal home life through the Women's Department. It will be conservative when good things are to be conserved, and radical when bad things are to be exposed.

A Courtship

That Came In Like a
Lamb and Went Out
Like a Lion

By EMMA THURSTON

Copyright by American Press Association, 1911.

In my girlhood there were very few fields open to women, and we were not ambitious to occupy those we were at liberty to enter. A woman would at that time rather rely on a man for her living than on her own exertions. I am one of those who believe that women are fitted for the home and are not fitted for making their own living. When Wilbur Ernst came courting me I persuaded myself that I loved him, possibly because it was to my interest to love him. He was a strong character. At any rate, he had a strong will, and I suppose the former cannot exist without the latter.

It seemed to me that he was just the kind of husband for a weak woman like myself. I would be content to let him breast the battle of the world for us both, and that was just what he liked. I could see by the way he talked that he had very little respect for women's opinions in business matters, and he would not be likely to consult me about his affairs. But I realized that I could not help him in this respect, and I had no desire to do so. My department would be the home, where I would have all the responsibility.

It would seem from what I have said that Wilbur and I would be especially fitted for each other. But to make assurance doubly sure there is always between couples the engagement period. Yet, I am free to say, sometimes, like the month of March reversed, it comes in like a lamb and goes out like a lion. I refer to cases where couples quarrel and break with each other before marriage.

Wilbur said that, of course, after a betrothal with him I must drop any of my old fancies. I had but one—Edward Tucker—and he didn't count, because I considered him too much like myself. At any rate, he was very lazy. I thought my fiancé might have left it to me to drop my old fancies without requiring me to do so. However, in Wilbur I had what I thought I should have—a man to manage me—and I intended to tell Edward the next time he came to see me that he needn't call again.

But somehow I couldn't. It was I who should have liked to mate with Edward if he hadn't been so easy going. He hadn't been making love to me at least not for some time—and it would seem out of place for me to disavow him out of place for me to disavow him. Besides a man who was not a suitor. Besides, we had long been friends. So when he called again I utterly failed to say anything about his keeping away from me.

I made a clean breast of the matter to Wilbur and saw the corners of his mouth come down and his chin stick out like the map of Spain. It was evident that there was a case for his strong will to bolster up my weak one. He made a remark with just a little bit of an edge on it, but I was surprised that instead of being strengthened I was nettled. He admitted that the matter required of me was embarrassing, but essential. Doubtless I would screw my courage up to the sticking point in time. I didn't say anything in reply, but doubted that I could screw up my courage.

There was just a little March breeze about this, but thus far there had been so much April softness that I didn't think the season could go backward and our courtship go out with a blast.

About this time June came on, the month of roses and marriages, though Wilbur and I were not to be married till the following autumn. He had agreed to spend a couple of weeks—his vacation—with me during the summer either in the mountains or at the seashore or any place I might select. This pleased me very much, and I told him I would think over the places at which I should like to spend this happy period and let him know before it should be time to go. But unfortunately among my other weaknesses is indecision, and for my life I couldn't make up my mind whether I preferred the mountains or the seashore. I knew a place in the former that was perfectly lovely, but the hotel was bad. Then I knew a place at the seashore where the hotel at which I should wish to stop was excellent, but a woman went there every summer whom I detested, and I couldn't bear the idea of being shut up with her under the same roof.

The 1st of July came round, and I had decided nothing. Wilbur asked me one day what I had done, and I said I had been unable to settle on anything. I asked him to decide the matter.

"I know nothing about summer hotels," he replied. "I've never had occasion to use one of them. You must settle on the place."

He had arranged for his outing for two weeks from the 15th of July. Just before the time to go he was very busy getting ready to be absent from business, and I didn't see him for a week. Then he came around on the evening of the 14th of July and asked where we were going. I told him I didn't know.

There was a fine March wind between us. I told him that I had engaged myself to a strong character that I might have some one to rely on in such matters, and he asked me what matters I intended to take under my own care. This made me very angry. I told him that I could make up my mind quick enough if I wished to, and I settled on the place in a twinkling. He asked me to name it, and I told him I would drop him a line. The next morning at 6 I took a train for the mountains. A few days after I reached my destination I wrote him where I was and that I should be happy to see him. He wrote that he had decided to give up his vacation since he was very busy and really should not take the time.

This came pretty near making a permanent break between us. I was miffed at having been called upon to take the initiative. But our betrothal survived it, and when I returned to the city all was made up between us.

It looked as if we should have April weather after this, but one evening another wind came up a good deal fresher than anything we had yet experienced and ended in a tornado. A certain performance, at the theater was to be given that I wished very much to see. I bought two seats and telephoned Wilbur that I wished him to go with me to the play. He replied that he had a business engagement for the evening and couldn't go. I asked him what I should do, and he replied through the telephone, mind you, so that the whole world could hear—that he was too busy to advise me and that I intended to rely on him through life for little things like that he would carry a load.

That provoked me. Before I had time to get over my hurt I had telephoned to Ed Tucker and asked him to be my attendant. He said he should be delighted. I had no sooner received his answer than I was called up by Wilbur to say that he had succeeded in putting off his business engagement and would be with me for the theater.

How could I be expected to know what to say to him at once and over a telephone? I didn't say anything but "Well" or "All right" or something like that, and he, being in a hurry, shut me off.

I couldn't make up my mind what to do in the matter, being rather weak about such things, and half an hour before it was time to go to the play Ed drove up in a carriage and carrying a bouquet of beautiful flowers, ran up the steps. I met him at the door and took him into the drawing room. I was about to explain the position to him when along came Wilbur. When he saw Ed his face looked like a thundercloud. He said nothing to Ed, but he said a good deal to me. As soon as he paused I tried to explain to him that I was engaged to go to the theater with both of them. At that moment he caught sight of the flowers lying on the table.

He looked from them to Ed, a frightful light shining in his eyes; then from Ed to me. He was the maddest man I ever saw, and yet I was not at fault at all. I hadn't even had a chance to accept or decline the gift.

You should have heard his talk. He told me that he had feared I was a very weak woman and he had found me not even the consistency of mush. I stood it as long as I could, getting madder, every minute. Suddenly I pointed to the door and, with flaming eyes and cheeks, said:

"Go!"

He subsided and started in to say something pleasant, but I repeated the word "Go!" and said it again and again till my voice was like a trumpet sounding a charge. I became so infuriated that he feared I would throw something at him and went out, saying he should call again when I had cooled.

"By Jove!" cried Ed. "I've long been looking for a woman to brace up my easy going nature. I've found her at last. Will you marry me?"

"Yes, I will."

And I did.

And so it was that my engagement with Wilbur Ernst came in like a lamb and went out like a lion. My husband, who has turned out to be a man who will fight for his own way in everything, says I am the most obstinate woman he ever knew. But one thing, to my surprise, he admits—he declares that no woman can make up her mind quicker when she wishes to than I, and he only regrets that I won't give him time to come to his own decisions before I spring mine upon him.

A TARCOOLER FUNERAL.

Wood Was Scarce, but They Managed to Rig Up a Coffin.

In some of the mining districts of South Australia there is a great scarcity of wood. Consequently, if you are so foolish as to die there you must expect to have a coffin, but must be content to be wrapped in a sack before being deposited in Mother Earth.

However, when a certain very prominent resident of a mining camp died the other people of the settlement—by the way, it was called Tarcooler, though coolness was unknown and Tarbotter would have been a more suitable name—determined that he should be buried in style. So they set about getting a coffin. They made one of a sort, placed a lid on it and laid it (with the deceased inside) in an empty tent for the night.

Next morning the lid of the coffin was missing. It was afterward found that it had been stolen to make the tailboard of a butcher's cart.

However, in spite of this trifling loss the funeral was conducted with great solemnity. The coffin was much admired. It had been made out of the boxes in which the dynamite was sent to the mines. Some people might have considered that the obsequies were marred by the fact that the coffin bore in large letters on one side the legend "Keep dry," and on the other "Stow away from boilers," but that did not trouble the simple minds of the Tarcooler-uns.—London Tit-Bits.

WORSE THAN WAR.

Infernal Regions of the Buddhists and Mohammedans.

The infernal regions of Buddhism are horrible. They comprise a great hell and 126 lesser hells. In these hells, according to the scriptures of the Buddhist temples, men are ground to powder and their dust turned into ants and fleas and spiders. They are pestled in a mortar. The hungry eat red-hot iron balls. The thirsty drink molten iron.

Islamism says of the infernal regions: "They who believe not shall have garments of fire fitted for them. Boiling water shall be poured on their heads and on their skins, and they shall be beaten with maces of iron."

In the Scandinavian mythology, the mythology of Odin and Thor, we are told that "in Nastrand there is a vast and dreadful structure, with doors that face the north. It is formed entirely of the backs of serpents, rattled together like wickerwork. But the serpents' heads are turned toward the inside of the hall, and they continually send forth floods of venom, in which were all those who commit murder or forswear themselves."

A Poor Motto.

Senator La Follette, apropos of a very dishonest financial operation, said in Madison:

"It almost seems as if there is a small body of men in this country whose motto is:

"To climb high, use low methods."—New York Press.

Handicapped.

"I never was so frightened in my life. When that man stepped out of the dark just behind me I thought I should die."

"Did you run?"

"That was the trouble. I couldn't run. I had on a hobble skirt."—Detroit Free Press.

This Auto Age.

Johnny's father took him to the office, and there the youngster saw the stenographer come in late and take the cover off her typewriter.

"Look at that!" exclaimed Johnny. "She lifted the garage right off the machine."—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Her First Poem.

She was one of those soft-eyed maidens, sweetly innocent, shy and gentle. She was unaccustomed to newspaper offices, but, being ambitious, she managed to find enough courage to try winning an editor's sympathy, sympathy to be expressed by the acceptance of her poem.

"I have here," she said demurely, "a little verse I've composed. I really don't know what you'll think of it. You may not like it at all, but it's my first—that is, the first I've ever written for a newspaper—and I'd be very pleased indeed if you honestly thought it was good."

The editor kept at his work, now and then scowling, but not at the young woman especially.

"It's about a maiden tripping o'er the leaf," she continued.

"What was the trouble?" asked the man behind the paper. "Couldn't she lift her feet?"—Philadelphia Times.

Slightly Mixed.

He wasn't good at conundrums, but when his turn came to ask one at a little social party he thought he could remember a good one he had heard. It was the old riddle:

"Why is a woman like the ivy?"

The answer, of course, is the gallant explanation:

"Because the more you're ruined the closer she sticks."

But he got it mixed and asked:

"Why is the ivy like a woman?"

None of the ladies present could give an appropriate reply, so he himself ventured this maladroit solution:

"Because the closer it clings the more you're ruined."

Spoiled It For Him.

Mr. Clarke's butler had asked for a night off, for the purpose, as he explained, of attending a ball in the village. The next day Mr. Clarke asked him how he had enjoyed himself.

"Oh, pretty good, sir, thank you," was the response. "It would have been better if it hadn't a-been for the women. I can't abide women at a ball!"—New York Press.

A Beautiful Thought.

A little girl absorbed in gazing at the starry skies being asked of what she was thinking said, "I was thinking if the wrong side of heaven is so glorious what must the right side be?"

A Threat.

Immature Conductor (to clarinet player)—See here, Mr. Schlag, why don't you follow my beat? Veteran Clarinet (solemnly)—If you don't look owd I will!—Puck.

A Surprise.

Gertie—I want to give my sweetheart a surprise on his birthday. Can you suggest something? Arabel—Well, you might tell him your age.

Bad men excuse their faults: good men will leave them.—Johnson.

Nobody Knows It All.

No man is so wise that the little barefoot boy in the street cannot teach him a trick or two.—Detroit Free Press.

Innocence can return to all with repentance.—Cooper.

To Stop Nosebleeds.

One of the commonest complaints among children, is bleeding of the nose, and the remedies to be applied are of the simplest. A small wad of white paper inserted under the tongue or under the upper lip is generally all that is needed to stop an ordinary nosebleed, although pads of cotton dipped in ice water and placed at the back of the neck is the standby of many mothers.

Emotion and Conduct.

Emotion has no value in the Christian system save as it is connected with right conduct. It is the bud, not the flower, and is of no value until it expands into the flower. Every religious sentiment, every act of devotion which does not produce a corresponding elevation of life, is worse than useless; it is absolutely pernicious, because it ministers to self-deception, and tends to lower the tone of persons' morals.—Murray.
